Cleveland Police Chief Gets Letter From Torso Killer

Writer, In Los Angeles, Says "You Can Rest Easy" for Winter

ASSERTS SCIENCE WILL HONOR HIM

Declares That "I Will Astound the Medical Profession"

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6.—A letter mailed in Los Angeles, California, to Police Chief George J. Matowitz of Cleveland, O., identifying the sender as Ohio's notorious "torso slayer," spurred police today to search for a possible victim of the mad killer.

The message, telling Cleveland police they "can rest easy now as I have come out to southern California for the winter," said the head of the writer's "latest victim" was buried in a gully beside a boulevard in south Los Angeles.

12 Victims in Ohio
Heretofore, as far as is known, the "mad butcher of Kingsbury run," has confined his activities to a shabby, scrubby area, criss-crossed by railroad tracks and a straggling little stream, at the backdoor of Cleveland's downtown district. The victims in Ohio number 12, seven males and five females, and all had been skillfully dissected.

"I felt bad operating on those people, but science must advance," read the letter, a copy of which was sent by Chief Matowitz to Los Angeles police. "I shall astound the medical profession, a man with only a D. C."

"What did their lives mean in comparison to hundreds of sick and diseased, twisted bodies? Just laboratory guinea pigs found on any public street. No one missed them when I failed. My last case was successful. I know now! the feeling of Pasteur, Thoreau, and other pioneers. Right now I have a volunteer who will prove my theories. They call me mad and a butcher, but the truth will out."

Letter signed "X"
"I feel it is my duty to dispose of the bodies as I do. It is God's will not to let them suffer." The letter was signed "X." Chief Matowitz said the only theory Cleveland police had been able to develop was that a crazed killer, with a flair for surgery, is at large.

The bodies, minus heads, have been found at various intervals during the past four years. Cleveland police estimated they have spent in excess of $100,000 in running down possible clues. Only a few of the victims have been identified. In each case, the bodies were nude, although clothing was found near the torso.

ATTEMPT SEEN TO STEAL BODY OF SLAIN MAN

Plan to Pry Open Marysville Mortuary Window Are Balked

SEEK CLUES IN CLERK'S MURDER

Victim's Body Recovered From Water In Abandoned Quarry

(By Associated Press)
MARYSVILLE, Jan. 6.—A possible attempt to steal the body of Clark S. (Bill) Hayes, 28, slain on the eve of his wedding, was reported today by Sheriff Homer Roosa.

The sheriff said that E. S. Faulkner, senior partner in an undertaking firm which has charge of the body, frightened away about 3:30 a. m. a man who attempted to pry open a window at the mortuary, located across the street from the county jail here.

"Someone was either trying to steal the body or was looking for the wire and can," Roosa said. "The wire and can, though, are locked up safely in the court house."

Found By Diver
Hayes' body, bound with copper wire and tied to a rusty, stone-laden milk can was found yesterday by a diver in 22 feet of water in an abandoned quarry near Summersville, 12 miles north of here, where Hayes worked as a clerk in the crossroads grocery store.

Faulkner, sleeping in a room next to the body, said he was awakened by the sound of someone trying to force the window. He was unable to furnish a description of the intruder, who escaped on foot.

Sheriff Homer Roosa expressed the opinion that "local talent" was responsible for the mysterious killing and indicated that "several suspects" might be questioned soon, but admitted that he had virtually no clues on which to work.

Coroner J. M. Foster returned a verdict of murder by drowning following an autopsy last night. Foster said the presence of water in the victim's lungs indicated that he was alive, although probably unconscious, when his assailant slipped his weighted victim through a hole in the ice which covered water in the abandoned quarry.

Truck Found Near Quarry
Hayes' disappearance became known Tuesday night. The truck in which he delivered goods for

RECALLS HOLDUP AT COLUMBIANA

Copy of Gunman's Confession Is Received by Prosecutor

LISBON, Jan. 6.—The story of just how the Citizens bank robbery at Columbiana occurred Dec. 31, 1937, is revealed in a confession of David L. Cross, one of the gunmen arrested near Lebanon last month following a Sebring holdup.

A copy of the confession was received this morning by Prosecutor Karl Stouffer from Col. Lynn Black, head of the state highway patrol. Officials of the Citizens bank have asked the grand jury to consider an indictment against Cross, although the defendant is now serving a penitentiary term for kidnapping a state patrolman.

Cross' confession implicates himself and his brother and a third man, known only as Jerry.

Cross explains that the three of them just happened to be in Columbiana the day they robbed the bank of $7,000 and that "me and Jerry went into the bank just at closing time while my brother stayed outside in the car."

"We decided to hold up the bank and when he came back out my brother had left the car. I saw him three months later and he told me he thought we weren't coming out of the bank again."

Cross concluded that he and Jerry went to Chicago from Columbiana where they parted.

Install Officers
Master Dawson Ivey, Jr., of Guilford grange, and other officers will be installed at a meeting of Columbiana county Pomona grange next Tuesday evening in Guilford grange hall.

ELECTRIC FIRM RESTORES PAY

Boost Accompanies Business Surge In Steel Industry

(By Associated Press)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 6.—The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company announced today it was restoring a 10 per cent wage cut to 5,000 of its 15,000 workers because of "improved business conditions."

The boost came as the steel industry joined other leaders in a new year's surge of activity, with Pittsburgh mills increasing output more than 15 per cent since the holidays.

President George H. Bucher of Westinghouse said all employees receiving $125 monthly or less would have their pay returned to the level of last June 1. The company at that time cut all salaries of employees and executives 10 per cent.

Less than 24 hours before the announcement, the company received a $2,233,000 contract for machinery for two navy battleships and a $764,000 order for two giant power generators at Charleston, S. C.

Informed steel sources were confident business in 1939 would be better than last year. Prices were firmer than they had been in months. Labor seemed settled (The

RELIEF NEEDS 'SURPRISE' TO CONGRESSMEN

Call On WPA To Show Need of $75-Million Dollars to July 1

ADMINISTRATOR FIRST WITNESS

Efforts Will Be Made To Cut Figure, Says Senator Adams

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Surprised by the size of President Roosevelt's estimate of emergency relief needs, congress asked the WPA today to show why it wants $875,000,000 to operate until July 1.

An appropriations subcommittee called Col. F. C. Harrington, WPA administrator, as the first witness in hearings which members said would be devoted to a close examination of relief needs.

Demand Fund Cut
At the same time, Senator Adams (D-Colo.) said that if the house did not cut the proposed fund, there would be a determined effort in the senate appropriations committee to do so.

"The $875,000,000 looks to me like a higher rate of expenditure than we have at present, in the face of many indications of improving business conditions," said Adams.

The President declared in a special message yesterday that the money would be required to keep 3,000,000 on WPA rolls in February and March, with the number diminishing gradually to 2,700,000 in June. President WPA funds, he said, will be exhausted at the end of this month.

Larger Than Expected
Senator Byrnes (D-S. C.) and Rep. Woodruff (D-Va.), floor managers for relief bills, said the $875,000,000 figure was larger than they had expected. Woodruff explained he understood the request was to be for only $500,000,000.

Byrnes, who has been working on a new formula for relief distribution, called his unemployment committee together to consider possible recommendations. He said he was preparing data to support his contention that some regions had not received their fair share of WPA funds.

The senate and house recessed over the weekend after hearing the President's budget and relief message yesterday. Legislators were busy, however, getting settled in their offices and making plans to push their favorite measures.

CITY WORKERS ATTEND DINNER

Approximately 80, Including Guests, Enjoy Pot and Kraut

Approximately 80 officials and employees of the city forgot their business cares and frolicked together at their second annual supper Thursday night in the former veterans' hall on Vine ave.

Every department of the municipality was represented. There were a few extra guests, including members of the Salem state highway patrol station.

Fire Chief Vincent L. Malloy acted as toastmaster. Rev. Carl Asmus, who pronounced the invocation, gave a short talk on fellowship. Short speeches were also given by Mayor George Harroff and Solicitor Lozier Caplan.

There was singing by the entire group, led by John Hundertmark's orchestra, which also played during the dinner.

The meal, which included sauerkraut, fresh ham, and all the extras, was served by Mrs. John Horn and her aids. Flowers which decorated the tables were furnished by Endres-Gross.

Service department workers, busy until after dusk on a broken water main, came to the dinner in their working clothes. They had been counting on the affair long before, and then trouble developed yesterday—of all days.

Probe Goes On

"The investigation will continue," said Prosecutor Karl Stouffer today in answer to a threat by "East Liverpool Business men" to "expose" him unless he calls off the grand jury's present gambling investigation.

"We have consulted a very able attorney regarding this evidence, and have found that it will be a very easy matter to present this evidence to the same grand jury that you intend to keep so busy investigating petty gambling. They would no doubt be very glad to have an explanation from you as to why you stand by and let the Democratic party gather funds through the medium of gambling and then reverse your stand on the matter and try to convict a merchant for making a few dollars with the same equipment."

The group charges that the prosecutor is attempting to "cover up bad luck in getting murder convictions and other convictions that are of some importance" by convicting a few merchants of petty gambling.

To their warning they add the prediction: "We feel sure that you will not find it advisable to risk your position just to have your name in the papers for convicting a few merchants of petty gambling."

Will Welcome Pictures
In answer to the threat, Stouffer replied he would "welcome the publication of the pictures, as they will help me track down the owners of the gambling equipment."

Charging that the letter came from "racketeers" rather than business men, the prosecutor declared: "There's something wrong with any business which must depend upon gambling."

He added: "I realize I cannot clear all gambling from the county, but, as I see my duty, I feel, at the same time, I must do all within my power to keep it down, especially when women and children whose husbands and fathers have lost money in these gambling places appeal to me for assistance."

Stouffer explained that he did not expect to apply to county commissioners for a bodyguard, but, "in case physical violence is threatened, I will apply to the court for permission to carry an automatic."

The full text of the letter sent to the prosecutor follows: "Dear Mr. Prosecutor:

"We, a number of business men, who have been able to pay our rent, or at least part of it, through the medium of your so-called gambling devices, have noticed that you have found it necessary, in your opinion, to have another so-called racket cleaned up."

"Could it be that you find it necessary to have these periodical clean-ups to cover your bad luck in getting murder convictions and other convictions that are of some importance?"

"Be that as it may, a number of us had the good fortune to be at the Democratic picnic held outside of Salem last summer, and also had the grand luck, or call it what you wish, of having photographs taken of you, your sheriff and his deputies standing idly by while gambling of various types was going on, along with sworn affidavits to verify this."

PROSECUTOR ADVISED TO STOP PROBE

Letter Signed "Group of E. Liverpool Merchants" Demands Grand Jury Investigation of Gambling Be Abandoned

"EVIDENCE" IS THREATENED

Letter Writers Say They'll Produce Photos Showing Prosecutor and Sheriff Watching "Gambling of Various Types"

A bombshell was dropped into Prosecutor Karl Stouffer's investigation of Columbiana county gambling activities today by "a group of East Liverpool merchants", who threatened to expose evidence against the prosecutor and Sheriff Harry L. Gosney if the present gambling probe is continued.

In an anonymous letter, signed "a group of East Liverpool merchants", the prosecutor was warned: "If your grand jury returns any gambling indictments in the county during the coming sessions, we will at once instruct our attorney to present the evidence we have gathered to the same jury."

Despite the threat, Prosecutor Stouffer told The Salem News today that he will continue his campaign against gambling and ask the grand jury, which convenes Monday, to return indictments on the strength of evidence gathered by two undercover agents from his office.

"I refuse to be bribed by money, false friends or gunmen," the prosecutor said, adding, "I refuse to be blackmailed and the gambling investigation will go on as planned without any interruption."

Labeling themselves as business men who have been able to pay rent through the medium of gambling devices, the East Liverpool group warned the prosecutor that if the gambling probe continues they will expose "photographs taken of you (the prosecutor), your sheriff and his deputies standing idly by while gambling of various types was going on."

Byrnes, who has been working on a new formula for relief distribution, called his unemployment committee together to consider possible recommendations. He said he was preparing data to support his contention that some regions had not received their fair share of WPA funds.

DANGERS FROM WITHOUT AND WITHIN

Development of a national defense complex in the United States can be measured by acceptance of the theme of President Roosevelt's opening address to congress.

It is the theme that the United States must put its house in order to make it strong against foreign dictatorships—both their armies and their ideas.

It is the theme that presentation of an united front against dictatorial nations is the necessity behind attempts to achieve reform and recovery at home.

This outline of national policy, to be elaborated in more detail by a subsequent message on national defense, will be given wide approval.

There are implicit in it, however, certain things—certain dangers and disappointments—which should be faced at the outset.

For one thing—and this will be made clearer in the President's budget message—it is a policy of expenditure. It calls for increasingly huge spending on armament and for continued large-scale spending within the country to produce national income sufficient to pay the cost of such a policy at some remote time in the future.

For another thing, the President's program threatens to make a political watchdog of national defense. It is a phrase which can and has covered a multitude of political sins, not as yet in the United States but in the very countries which today threaten to precipitate worldwide chaos. They have been able for the time being to divert the energies of their people to the making of war—in the name, always, of national defense.

There is the danger that when domestic problems are made to hinge on the apparent necessities of national defense, the latter will control the solution of the former. Fear of invasion, even in this country blessed with the protection of two oceans, is a potent force in politics. It must be used sparingly, or it becomes a shibboleth, more useful to politicians than to those they serve.

It would be well to consider before it is too late that the United States has least to fear of all the great nations of earth from invasion, either military or ideological. It has no natural enemy. Moreover, it enjoys a scale of living so high that no other system of society yet devised can match it.

There will be, in the last resort, only one adequate defense for American ideals and institutions. They can be made indestructible through belief and application. In essence, that is what the President proposes, but here as in the case of all proposals, there may be a legitimate difference of viewpoint concerning method.

America must be prepared to defend itself not only with arms but with conviction. It must not yield too far to the persuasion of those who would develop in the American people a defense complex, which easily can become a sort of composite national insanity. The possibility that preparations for defense may seem to call for abandonment of the principles worth defending is not safely remote. The military problem should not be permitted to seem more important than the social-political problem which President Roosevelt has attached to it.

VALEDICTORY

There's this to be said about Martin L. Davey as the moving van, backs up to the governor's mansion to bring his career as governor of Ohio to an end. He was realistic about partisan politics.

That's his own boast. For once at least, he can't be misrepresented by the press. "When we see some jobs we go after them," he told a joint session of the house and senate Wednesday night, explaining the job grab at the expense of the unemployment compensation commission.

"We're quite frank about it," he explained, comparing his realism with that of the Republicans who, he jibed, "call in the minister, have a prayer meeting, then when the audience has their heads bowed in supplication to the Almighty run out the back door with the jobs."

Perhaps it's an idea that Mr. Davey has there; we wouldn't know. But sometime, somewhere, someone said that civilization is largely a matter of getting what you want from the other fellow without first knocking him down to get out. In other words, the trouble with too much realism in passing out jobs to the faithful is that it makes people sore.

Perhaps Mr. Davey would know something about that.

COURT REORGANIZATION MAY BE REVIVED

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The court reorganization issue may be revived in senate hearings on Felix Frankfurter's nomination to the Supreme Court.

Although most senators expressed hearty support of the liberal Harvard law professor, several today predicted he would be asked for his views on the Roosevelt court bill, rejected by the senate in 1937.

Frankfurter, a White House adviser since the inception of the New Deal, was appointed yesterday by Mr. Roosevelt to succeed the late Justice Cardozo. He is not expected to join the court until the senate confirms his nomination.

Some western senators expressed regret that a man from their section had not been chosen, since the west is not now represented on the court. Senator Thomas (D., Utah) said after a visit to the White House, however, he was sure that Frankfurter would be appointed ultimately.

THEY CAN BE USED

The winner of the latest Nobel prize in physics, Enrico Fermi, landed in New York this week and was reported to be planning to live permanently in this country.

Without knowing why Prof. Fermi, whose previous attachment was with the University of Rome, might be wanting to stay here, Americans like to believe it's because this still is the land of opportunity for Europeans who don't like the way things are going.

In centuries past it was able to accommodate a lot of them looking for a better place to work and live. They made America what it is today—a fact which might give those European leaders, apparently determined to make this country seem an attractive refuge for all persons who don't agree with them, something to think about.

THE STARS SAY:

For Saturday, January 7

THIS MAY prove to be a day in which to "cash in" on much previous effort or meritorious performance, judging by the lunar transits. It is propitious for reaping after much diligent and efficient work, although there may be sudden change of plans or even environs or backers. It would be well to defer these rearrangements and to pursue objectives on lines already proving sound and practical.

Those whose birthday it is are to have the opportunity for making good or profiting from past performances of merit and practicality. Industry, fidelity and steadfastness, as well as ability, are to enlist ready support for promotion of worthwhile projects. However, there may be lures to change one's place or plans. Hasty decisions in this connection are hazardous.

A child born on this day may be steady, persistent, industrious and dependable, although at times it may exhibit traits seemingly changeable and erratic. These may be attributable to the "eccentricities of genius." However, its worthy ambitions should be fulfilled.

There was also speculation over whether some of the older justices soon might retire. Talk centered around Justice Louis D. Brandeis, 82, and Justice James C. McReynolds, 76, but there was no public indication of their plans. Several members of the senate sub-committee named to consider Frankfurter's nomination said they would not vote until hearings could be held. They began a study of the appointee's past utterances in an effort to ascertain his attitude toward the court reorganization plan. Senators King (D., Utah) and Connally (D., Tex.) said that while Frankfurter had made no definite statement on the program there were indications he had opposed it. Hearings also were scheduled on three other nominations Mr. Roosevelt sent to the senate yesterday—those of former Senator Pope (D., Idaho) to be a TVA director, Harry Hopkins to be secretary of commerce, and Frank Murphy to be attorney general. Senate critics of the TVA promptly challenged Pope's nomination on the ground that no vacancy exists. Senator Bridges (R., N. H.) asserted that Mr. Roosevelt had acted "illegally" in ousting Arthur E. Morgan as TVA chairman last year. Pope was named to Morgan's unexpired term. Morgan now is contesting his removal in a court proceeding. Senator Norris (Ind., Neb.), who fathered the TVA act in congress, defended Pope's right to the seat and said the appointment could have no effect on the pending court action. Bridges also criticized the nominations of Murphy and Hopkins in the senate yesterday. Senators Connally and Wagner (D., N. Y.) promptly came to Hopkins' support. Connally charged Bridges was trying to "smear Mr. Hopkins without giving him a fair hearing."

Most Cathartics Are Not Really Needed, Doctor Says

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Of the medicines which are taken by the people of the United States, at least 60 per cent of the daily consumption are cathartics. And it may safely be said that not more than two per cent are necessary. It may further be said that constipation, the condition they are supposed to relieve, is made worse or actually created by the use of cathartics.

Most constipation is imaginary. Its evils are almost entirely imaginary. The imaginary constipation which he needs a cathartic, which irritates

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

The inside of his bowel, which makes him think his bowel is distended, which makes him take more cathartics. The vicious circle is complete.

Regarded As Crank
These doctrines, which I have been preaching for many years, are not readily acceptable to the cathartic habitues. I am regarded by them as a crank. I am, therefore, glad to have support in an authoritative book by Dr. Harold Aaron, medical consultant to Consumers Union U. S., called "Our Common Ailment—Constipation, Its Cause and Cure."

Dr. Aaron points out that just as no two people are alike temperamentally, so no two sets of intestines are alike. The rhythm varies with all of us. Our insides work in different schedules. For some, one evacuation a day, for some, two, for some, one every other day is normal.

To substantiate this, look at the experiment performed by Dr. Wilmer C. Alvarez of the Mayo Clinic. He gave healthy medical students sets of gelatin capsules containing small glass beads. They swallowed these with their meals. The beads were counted as they came out. The results showed that normal young men with good digestions and daily bowel movements did not pass in 24 hours anything like 100 per cent of the beads. Two passed 85 per cent in 24 hours; most of the students took four days to get rid of 75 per cent, and some passed only 50 per cent in nine days.

"It is not intended that the bowel should be free of waste matter," writes Dr. Aaron—another bugaboo with no basis.

No Basis For It

When a physician asks his patients who complain of constipation what they mean by the term, he is usually told it means that if they stopped taking laxatives the bowels would not move during the next 24 hours. This idea has been encouraged by high-powered propaganda, but it has no basis in fact. It is really amusing to see the astonishment exhibited by one of these cathartic slaves when he finds he has a normal evacuation after having been persuaded to leave off the dosage entirely for a day.

For treatment, the first step is an X-ray examination to see whether constipation actually exists or not. If it is mild, an increase in the amount of bulky foods in the diet may overcome the constipation. The amount of fruits and vegetables in the daily diet (but not bran foods) may be increased. In most people six to 12 stewed prunes a day are all that is necessary.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

W. J. P.: "What is the caloric value of fountain drinks, such as 'Coca-Cola'? Are there as many calories in oleomargarine as there are in butter?"

Answer: An average glass of Coca-Cola contains about 25 calories. The caloric content of oleomargarine is approximately the same as butter.

P. C.: "Just as soon as the first chill wind of winter comes, my skin begins to get dry and harsh. Can this be corrected by taking something or by outward treatment applied to the skin?"

Answer: The condition in some degree affects many people. In the extreme form it is called "ichthyosis" or fish skin, because of the scaling. No internal treatment is of any benefit. Cut down the number of body baths to one every 10 days or two weeks. The body can be kept clean by rubbing with a dry towel. The use of oils, such as coconut butter or olive oil, anointed on the body is beneficial.

J. S. P.: "There is an increasing promotion of dextrose in foods as of special food value. What particular benefits to the system has dextrose over sugar?"

Answer: Dextrose or glucose or grape sugar is a chemically simpler sugar than ordinary table sugar, which is cane sugar or sucrose. All sugars are converted to glucose in the body because that is the only form the body can convert into energy. In infant feeding, dextrose is said to have some advantage, as do all the simpler sugars such as maltose, especially in difficult cases of indigestion, but there is no advantage for adults.

V. L. S.: "I am a stenographer and my hands have large veins. This is embarrassing to me in my work. I am wondering if there is an injection which will help this condition?"

Answer: The injections used for clattering varicose veins might work on the hands but I never heard of an instance of this use. I think you have the wrong slant. To most people veins on the hands are attractive.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Seven pamphlets by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, 235 W. 45th st., New York City. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

CITY SKATING POND

Editor The News:

While the city legislative department has responded favorably to city skating pond project, it appears to me that the executive branch is in need of plain T. N. T. language for negligence on their part.

The law places responsibility of work involving city funds, directly up to, the service director, (and, possibly engineer). Having teeth pulled would be about as easy as getting them on the job when needed, at times at least. Possibly the mayor is their boss.

We all know that a dam built largely of land and gravel simply will not hold water. Regardless of who was at fault, Wilson shifted responsibility onto others. The storm of Dec. 26 caused a break in the dam, which could have been stopped with three or four bags of dirt, sufficient to hold until they could reinforce it. But Wilson did not have any work done on it for 48 hours after he discovered the break, causing a loss of about six inches of water, which pulled all the water from under the southeast side causing air pockets that broke through.

Then in place of reinforcing west dam with plank or poles packed solid with clay and muck, he used same material as before, sandy ground from nearby high ground. Result, Jan. 2 break at same spot, which Herman Folk and I succeeded in plugging enough to last until next day about 5 p. m.

Again he let us down, and after promising council to start repairs Wednesday, no work was done. Result, washed almost to bottom of dam and cutting back under dam. Does he want to lose the whole works?

As to flushing the ice at night during the holiday period, he probably lost the key to the padlock on the valve. Skaters were clamoring each day to have ice flushed, to smooth the bumps. It was his right to fail to flush it, but election day is coming. Sometimes the people talk through their ballots.

I feel it was a mistake to use a dam in Buttermilk Run when a floodgate would have diverted the water on out the run after rains or sudden thaw when it is on a rampage.

If city council will see that my suggestions are followed so far as possible next summer, in changing course of Buttermilk Run, building a strong dam near west well 600 or 700 feet west of present one, with proper flood gates in the run, we can double the area of ice for next winter, and flood from run.

I think we all agree as to best location for ball diamonds and tennis courts. I guessed right in regard to the dam and what Buttermilk Run would do. Also as to the waterline on pond. Not because I know it all, but because making a study of this field has been my main hobby, my Sunday school room, for about five years.

If helping to make this field a source of pleasure to Salem youngsters (and older ones too), is my talent, it will not be hidden under a basket if I can help it. Seeing as many as 300 people at or time enjoying the skating, gave me as happy a holiday period as it did the youngsters. And all proved to be good sports.

GEORGE BRICKER.

WHEAT NATIONS DESIRE OUTLET

New Policy For Canada
First On Agenda At
Winnipeg Parley

WINNIPEG, Manitoba — With world grain markets stagnated by surplus representatives of the leading export countries will meet in Winnipeg, Dec. 12-16 and endeavor to formulate a new Canadian wheat policy.

Wheat experts from the United States, the Argentine and other Canadian provinces will attend the four-day session called by the Manitoba government.

Confronted with a decidedly bearish statistical position of wheat, conferees will tackle the problem of finding an outlet for an overstocked market and a stalemate for rapidly declining prices.

Canada's recent signature to a revision of a 2-year-old reciprocal trade treaty with the United States is expected to have a direct bearing on the conference. In the agreement the Dominion yielded to a 1-cent per bushel preference on Canadian-grown wheat going directly to the United Kingdom.

$50,000,000 At Stake
With present prices of wheat bordering on the depression lows of 1932, Canada faces a possible loss of $50,000,000 on the 1938 yield because it pledged itself to pay farmers a minimum of 80 cents a bushel regardless of the world price. The 80-cent minimum will save farmers this year, but the administration is concerned with the prospect of the imminent loss and future years.

World wheat production during 1938 was slightly under 5,000,000,000 bushels, or 507,000,000 bushels in excess of last year's yield. This is exclusive of the unharvested Argentine crop, estimated at 300,000,000 bushels.

In announcing its intention of representation at the conference, the Argentine government stated that it would cooperate in efforts to reach an agreement on a world wheat policy, but would not accept commitment on its unharvested 1938-39 crop.

Carry-Over To Be Large
Substantial carry-overs are expected in the major exporting countries. The international trade in wheat exports has been estimated at between $20,000,000 and $50,000,000.

The development of keen competition in export markets has been described by some observers as a "wheat war". In addition to restrictive measures taken by European countries to control imports, some have adopted the subsidy methods to facilitate disposition of surpluses.

The United States has set an export objective of 105,000,000 bushels through the subsidy plan for 1938. The plan so far has been disappointing, with only about 34,000,000 or less than half the objective, exported between July 1 and Nov. 15.

Argentina also subsidized its exports. Competition between the Argentine and Canada is anticipated when the former takes this year's crop.

Livestock Problems Up
Subjects to be considered at the sessions will not be limited solely to those of wheat marketing, but will encompass a detailed study of problems associated with the marketing of surpluses of cattle, hogs, butter, honey, poultry and fish.

The United States is represented by L. A. Wheeler, chief of the Foreign Division of the Department of Agriculture, and R. M. Evans, administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Premier John Bracken of Manitoba, a noted economist, will preside at the meeting.

Bargains are plentiful. The ads. will tell you where.

Deny Roper Party Charge

Margie G. Renn

Richard N. Elliott

Charges made by Acting Comptroller General Richard N. Elliott that former Secretary of Commerce Daniel Roper gave parties aboard government boats at taxpayers' expense were countered with statements by the new commerce secretary, Harry L. Hopkins, defending Roper. Hopkins declared Roper had issued repeated injunctions against such practices and that Roper had adhered to the orders rigidly. Roper said the abuses which Elliott named were traceable to the Hoover administration. Elliott also named Margie G. Renn, secretary to Roper, as one of the persons alleged to have used the yacht Eala, a departmental boat, for their private entertainment.

Flue Is Blamed In New Garden Blaze

A defective flue was blamed for the fire which destroyed the farm home of John Murray, southeast of New Garden, Thursday afternoon.

Murray and some friends were in the cellar grading potatoes and were unaware the house was afire until the top floor started falling in. The only things saved were a few furnishings taken from the first floor. Fifty dollars in currency which Murray had in a bedroom was lost.

Although the house burned to the ground, other buildings at the farm were not endangered.

Salem firemen were called and went as far as New Garden, where they were turned back by muddy roads leading to the farm.

"It's Tough Enough Without Jinx, Too"

LISBON, Jan. 6.—Noticing an unusually heavy flow of traffic on the rear courthouse stairs Thursday and knowing them to be infrequently used, an inquiring employee investigated.

Placed on the landing between the second and third floors front, was a ladder. Since there was enough room for even the largest tax payers to pass provided they walked under the ladder, the investigator reached the conclusion that superstition was responsible for the detour.

The conclusion was verified by the remarks of a girl working on the third floor.

"I know it's silly," she said, "but why take any chances? It's a tough enough world without having a jinx around your neck."

Wanted to Purchase "Quarter Machine"

LISBON, Jan. 6.—This week's news included a story regarding seizure of an alleged counterfeit in Leetonia and his subsequent removal to Cleveland by federal agents.
Seized at the same time was equipment used in turning out spurious quarters.

Thursday a man approached Roy Case, office deputy for the sheriff's office. "What," he asked, "did they do with that counterfeiting outfit?"
When the deputy told him it probably had been taken to Cleveland as evidence, the man looked chagrined.

"Too bad," he said, "I'd liked to have bought it."
When the deputy, properly suspicious, asked some questions on his own account, the visitor produced a card. It gave his name and address. In the lower corner were the words, "Chicken Rings."

It developed that the visitor was interested in buying presses presumably used in turning out the counterfeit coins, using them to imprint the rings. Poultrymen place them around the legs of the fowls and by using "nest traps" are able to keep an accurate check on the number of eggs laid by each hen.

Mooney Prepares For Life Outside

SAN QUENTIN, Calif., Jan. 6.— Thomas J. Mooney, apparently assured of a pardon tomorrow when he appears before Gov. Culbert L.
Olson at Sacramento, turned today to plans for his life outside prison walls.

"I'm going to dedicate the rest of my life, if necessary," said
Mooney, "to winning freedom for Warren Billings, too."

Mooney and Billings were convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment in the 1916
San Francisco Preparedness day parade bombing in which 10 persons were killed and 40 injured. The defendants claimed they were accused falsely because of their reputations as "direct action" labor unionists, and that they were convicted on perjured testimony.

Governor Olson, newly-seated Democratic executive, already has said he believes Mooney innocent, and has declared he would announce his decision immediately after the pardon hearing. No opposition to Mooney's application was expected.

E. Liverpool Plans Licensing Devices

EAST LIVERPOOL, Jan. 6.—City council today considered legislation to license so-called amusement devices, including cigaret and marble slot machines, despite likelihood the equipment may be affected by a Columbiana county grand jury investigation of gambling Monday.

The legislation, providing for a monthly license of $3 on each machine, is patterned after an ordinance now operative in Cleveland.

Cigaret machines, banned by police a few weeks ago, reappeared in cigar stores and liquor taverns here today, but no taboo has been placed on marble slot machines which are termed "games of skill."

CLEVELAND—Lawrence Krum,
36, discovered that his old legs would not conform to his young ideas when he tried to jump a puddle, misjudged the distance, missed the curb and fell. He suffered lacerations on the forehead as a result of his "puddle-jumping."

County's and City's Relief Loads Climb

Salem's relief load climbed slightly along with the county's during the past month. It is learned from the county's relief report and advance allocations, made today.

The city is listed as having 90 cases, or 263 persons, on relief and therefore received an allocation of $1,315 in funds for the month of January. Eighty-four cases were reported at the start of December.

The county's relief distribution today amounts to $17,125 for an 1,195 case load, which includes
3,425 individuals.

This is more than the December report, which showed a release of $15,907 in funds for 1,138 cases, or 3,194 persons.

East Liverpool today received $5-445 for 416 cases, or 1,039 individuals; East Palestine, $795 for 43 cases, or 139 individuals; Wellsburg, $903
for 74 cases, or 181 persons.

Allocations to the townships included: Perry, $155; Salem, $1,415;
Center, $560; Butler, $135, and Fairfield, $385.

MONTREAL—The visit of King
George VI and Queen Elizabeth to Canada next summer and the New York World's air will help revive the slumping trans-atlantic passenger business, shipping men here believe. They forecast that both events will give impetus to westbound traffic.

PRESIDENCY BEE IN MEXICO HUMS

Scramble For Position As Head of United Mexican States

MEXICO, D. F.—Nobody has officially announced his candidacy for president of the United Mexican States for the 1940-46 term, but already there's a scramble for position by numerous politicians.

Gen. Lazaro Cardenas, who has completed four of his six years in office, has announced a hands-off policy. This promise of presidential neutrality has served to stimulate more politicians than usual to think possibly they have a chance.

This is in contrast to the situation prevailing for a few years after the death of Gen. Alvaro Obregon in 1928. At that time, Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles was about to complete his term as President. Obregon was to succeed him. But when Leon Torralba, the young Catholic fanatic, was elected Obregon, there was considerable confusion and all eyes turned to Calles.

Official Party Created

Instead of staying in office another term, Calles decided to step out. He did, however, then create an official party, the PNR (Partido Nacional Revolucionario—National Revolutionary Party), which for several years was the tool which Calles used to govern Mexico. The PNR after Obregon's death was handpicked by Calles, namely Emilio Portes Gil, a distinguished lawyer; Gen. Pascual Ortiz Rubio, and Gen. Abelardo L. Rodriguez.

Historic documents divulged in the past few weeks reveal that Rodriguez, once he assumed the presidency, sought to curb Calles' power. In this connection, a grave constitutional crisis in Mexico was threatened in March, 1934, when Calles received a letter from President Franklin D. Roosevelt, praising him (Calles) for the big progress that Mexico was making. Rodriguez ordered cancellation of plans to make public that letter, and later also wrote to Ambassador Osephus Daniels, reminding him that he, Rodriguez, and not Calles was at the helm in Mexico.

It is becoming clearer every day that General Cardenas, when nominated by the PNR as official candidate for President in 1934, was ostensibly backed by Calles, but in reality was an opposition candidate. This opposition was developed within the framework of the PNR itself. All appearances of union between the two factions were maintained, but Cardenas got his support mainly from the "left wings" (Alas Izquierdas) in the chamber of deputies and the senate, and from the popular following which he built up in extensive tours of the hinterland.

Trevino Boom Dropped

Calles' real candidate in 1934 seems to have been Gen. Manuel Perez Trevino. However, when Calles saw the agitation in favor of Cardenas, he dropped Trevino. Trevino then withdrew from the race and Cardenas was nominated by unanimous vote of the convention.

These facts—which have only come to light recently in connection with the polemics over the Roosevelt letter—show that Calles' power had been curbed to some extent before the famous break between him and Cardenas in June, 1935.

After that clash, which Cardenas won, there still remained the Calles-created PNR. But Cardenas dissolved that in December, 1937, and ordered the creation of a new party, which took the initials PRM, meaning Partido de la Revolucion Mexicana, or Party of the Mexican Revolution. In this new party the army, which after all is the keystone of rule over Mexico, openly has an important role, whereas in the old PNR it officially was not represented.

Theatre Attractions

Harpo, Groucho and Chico Marx as they appear in the comedy, "Room Service," showing at the State theater Saturday only.

The Broadway stage hit, "Room Service," adapted to the screen, comes to the State theater Saturday only, with the three Marx brothers in the featured roles.

The comedy, a story of producer trying to put on a show he is sure will be a hit, if he can find the money and the cast for it, offers roles entirely suitable to the three comedians' talents.

management. Their troupe of performers, locked out of their own rooms, come to the producer's. A fake murder, a revival and another murder, coupled with the group's efforts to find an "angel" to back their show, make the comedy one of the Marx' best.

"Dramatic School," starring Paul-ette Goddard and Luise Rainer, concludes tonight at the State. Gale Sondergaard, Henry Stephenson, Alan Marshall, Genevieve Tobin and Lana Turner have featured roles.

The Grand theater presents a new western action story, "Law of the Texans," with Buck Jones in the principal role. Jones is seen as a Texas Ranger who, after three attempts to halt silver ore raiders, quits the service and joins up with the bandits. He finally brings them to justice while he poses as one of them.

Dorothy Fay, who has appeared in several of his other films, is the leading feminine player.

ELECTRIC FIRM RESTORES PAY

smaller concerns buying raw steel and selling finished products have been squeezed by prices and at least two have obtained wage concessions, and inventories are normal or low. Orders are increasing after a December lull.

The jump in steel operations—17 points in Pittsburgh to 45 per cent of capacity, 15 in Wheeling to 77; 11 in Cleveland to 51, and 7 in Chicago to 50—has been without benefit of any considerable amount of buying from three major consumers.

Orders Are Placed
This trio—rails, oils and canneries—usually place orders within the next 60 days for the year. In the past 60 days railroads have placed orders for more than $20,000,000 but many millions more than this are expected, especially if some plan for financial assistance is advanced the roads.

By Feb. 1 most tin plate mills are expected to be operating at capacity. In 1938 their operations slumped badly because of large inventories accumulated in 1937, but these have been reduced to normal or lower.

ATTEMPT SEEN TO STEAL BODY

Grocer Charles Nichols of nearby Summerville was found near the quarry. Tracks in the country road indicated, Roosa said, that Hayes had been stopped by someone in a smaller machine. A rock lay on the floor of the truck cab and there was a bruise on Hayes' head.

Oletha Morrow, 26, of York Center, the bride-to-be, and a clerk in the store with Hayes, remained at the home of Hayes' mother here last night, too grief-stricken to see anyone.

"How could anyone kill my man?" she sobbed upon learning that her fiance's body had been recovered. "It's just like a dream. Just think, it was the day before we were to be married. How could such a thing happen to me?"
The motive for the slaying admittedly puzzled authorities. A total of $147 in cash was found in the truck and an additional $5 in Hayes' water-soaked trousers.

Prosecutor William J. Porter said Oletha told him that she hadn't had a "date with another man in six years." She and Hayes had rented a home in which to live after their marriage. The couple apparently had no known enemies, Porter added.

NATIONAL LOOP IS ALMA MATER FOR MANAGERS

Southern League Counts Only One American Circuit Boss

The American League may have the drawn but, take it from the Nationals, they have the brains. A look at the Southern League, for instance, shows that of the eight managers, only one, newly-appointed Roger Peckinpaugh, is an American League manager—the others are all former National League men.

Horace Stoneham, Giants' president, picks the Cubs and the Giants to fight it out for the National League pennant next season, but Larry MacPhail of the Dodgers, picks three clubs which won't win the flag—Cubs, Giants and Phillies. Something wrong somewhere.

More cleanings about the winter sports trail.

Tuffy Leemans, versatile ball-carrying back of the world champion New York Giants, now is in the dry-cleaning business with his father-in-law.

Wild Bill Boyd, latest heavyweight protegee of Jack Dempsey, is one of the ring's most deceiving-looking fighters—a prematurely bald head of soft, stringy physique, he looks anything but a pugilist, yet he weighed him 44½ pounds, 14 times before the fight was stopped.

Bill Dickey, ace Yankee catcher, must figure the Giants as the hottest touch in the National League, at least as World Series rivals—it is said he told Bill Terry to go ahead and buy Zeke Bonura at any price—"He'll slug you into the pennant," said Bill.

Seems odd that Cardinals did not present their new manager, Ray Blades, at the major league meetings while the Browns brought their new pilot, Fred Harvey, all the way from the coast for the sessions.

Eric Tipton, Duke's great back, would rather hit a baseball than kick a football and it's fairly definite at this time that he's headed for the Yankee roster.

Ted Williams, new regular right fielder of the Red Sox, must be good—the Sox took only a two-week look at him last spring and sent him to the minors for final polishing, apparently well satisfied.

Meyer Bloom, Temple basketball star of 1936, now plays with the Philadelphia Sphas in the American Pro League; Bloom holds the college scoring crown—he went through 72 games without a zero.

The Joe Louis-John Henry Lewis fight broadcast Jan. 25 will go over both the red and blue networks of the National Broadcasting company.

The Havana Racing association's 52-day meeting at Oriental Park will open Jan. 12.

Duke's football players had turkey dinner at a movie director's ranch after their Rose Bowl game.

Frankie Brimsek, the Boston Bruins' hockey shutout specialist, spends his summers as a baseball player with Providence.

Referees in the American Professional Basketball League are paid as high as $30 a game—a lot more in most cases than the players receive.

John McDonald of the Brooklyn Dodgers, writes that not once during 1937 did the Dodgers have all their regulars on the field—he's telling us!

Gene Mako, former partner of professional Don Budge, was paired with Jack Tidball, his new doubles partner, for the first time during the Sugar Bowl tournament.

Fight Results
Atlantic City, N. J. — Leroy Haynes, 190, Philadelphia, knocked out Don Petrin, 185, Newark, (4).
Philadelphia—Gene Buffalo, 152, Philadelphia, defeated Tony Cisco, 159½, Norristown, Pa., (10).

OPPORTUNITIES
Opportunities to buy to advantage are found daily in The News classified adv. columns.

Plans Long Flight

Bessie Owen

One of the outstanding women flyers in the United States, Bessie Owen, discloses in Los Angeles, where she is pictured, that she will fly to South America and after the seldom-explored Amazon river after competing in the Miami, Fla., air races. Miss Owen said the trip would be planned as a pleasure flight.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Various Spots

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Those promoters who are so glibly talking about matching Patrick Edward Comiskey, the Jersey heavyweight hope, with Baer or Nova, forget the kid is only 18 and therefore not eligible to fight main bouts in this state. There is a big alumni move on the coast to get Howard Jones a long term contract at Southern California. Van Mungo was the only Dodger to have his salary slashed. Well, anyway Jimmy Foxx (don't forget that extra X) who wants $40,000 per, ain't bashful, is he?

That Dizzy Dean pop-off had the old familiar ring—arm O. K., can't wait for bell to ring, etc., Cub officials hope it's so. Dick Bartell and old Ty Cobb are neighbors in California and go golfing almost daily. A guy in Philly whose name escapes me is doing an A-1 job of sportscasting these days. He really gives you the lowdown. Who is the gorgeous blonde Hank Greenberg is squiring around the night spots?

Kidd Brewer, who put Appalachian college on the football map, is after the backfield coaching job at Florida and old Josh Cobb probably will be smart enough to give it to him. Tom Yawkey can count what is left of his million dollar baseball investment on the fingers of one hand—Joe Cronin, Bob Grove, Jimmy Foxx and Roger Cramer. Walter Hagen, still minus two of the three chins he used to feature, is calling on the trade in the interest of a line of golf equipment. Lafayette should be red hot in the east next season with the best yearling squad in history coming up.

Football coaches who have been making goo goo eyes at Bobby Cifers, Kingsport, (Tenn.) backfield flash, can save their stamps. The kid has just about made up his mind to do his running for Major Neyland at Tennessee. California writers are pouring it to the New York boxing commission for not recognizing the coming Armstrong-Arismendi match as a lightweight championship tilt. (Reason, the bout is for 10 rounds only.)

Boney Ross came out of retirement last night to present the prizes at Eddie Cantor's dance for the Jewish relief fund.

Not even the Greeks had a word for that exhibition Vines and Budge put on at the Garden the other night. Nearest to perfectly describing it was that old Roman, Dan Parker, who called it "ten cent tennis" in the New York Mirror.

Frankie Strafaci, former public links champion, could stand it no longer. He has quit selling autos for the time being, packed his golf clubs and headed for the Florida tournaments. Herr Max Schmeling is getting ready to say "somethings" about 1939 fight plans.

Washington Alumni Would Pay Gridders

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 5. — A "cut" in the gate receipts for football players was advocated today by the executive board of the Spokane Alumni association of Washington State college.

The board unanimously passed a resolution last night "recommending x x x that in its budget provision be made for adequate compensation to football players, so that Washington State college may again attain its high place in coast football competition and thereby continue to provide athletic facilities for the entire student body."

State finished last in the 1938 Pacific Coast conference football race.

Cleveland Tipster Puts Self In Jail

CLEVELAND, Jan. 6.—A tipster in Cleveland's series of torso murders went to jail himself today.

Jack Hart, 26, a WPA worker, last Tuesday told detectives of an encounter with a "masked" rubber-gloved knife-wielder who slashed his face.

Today, Detective Peter Merylo said, Hart admitted he was on parole from the Jackson, Mich., penitentiary where he served five years for robbery, and that his encounter with the torso murderer was a hoax.

Armstrong Fights

CINCINNATI, Jan. 6. — Henry Armstrong, world's lightweight and welterweight boxing champion, will appear here in two exhibition bouts against lightweight foes on Jan. 17.

HOCKEY TEAMS VIE FOR LEAD

Cleveland Faces Philadelphia Saturday In Fight for First

CLEVELAND, Jan. 6.—The hottest battle of the International-American hockey league to date is scheduled for the glaze of Cleveland Arena Saturday night when the Philadelphia Ramblers, pace-setters of the league's eastern division, invade to tangle with Coach Bill Cook's Cleveland Barons, who are topping the western division of the circuit.

Undisputed leadership of the league will go to the victors.

Besides putting the respective divisional team leaders together, the game will also see the league's four top individual scoring aces facing each other. Left Winger Kilby McDonald of Philadelphia has a 10-point lead over the rest of the league by virtue of netting 12 goals and getting 25 assists. His teammate, Joe Krol, is second in the eastern bracket with eight goals and 18 assists for 26 points.

Leading the entire circuit in denting the nets of the opposition is Right Winger Phil Hergesheimer of the Barons, who has set his eye on a mark of 20 goals this season. He already tops the entire circuit in this department with 17 twine-bulgers; accounted for in 24 games. Coupled with 10 assists his total of 27 points heads the western division scores. Right on Hergie's heels is Left Winger Lorne Duguid of the Barons with 23 points accounted for on nine goals and 14 assists.

To date the Barons and Ramblers have met twice with the locals winning both times.

Following the Philadelphia game the Barons take to the road to make way for the appearance of Sonja Henle and her Hollywood Ice Revue at the Arena from Tuesday through Saturday, returning home to cross sticks with Pittsburgh on Sunday, Jan. 15. On the road trip the Barons will play four games, invading New Haven Sunday, Springfield Tuesday, Philadelphia Wednesday, and Hershey Saturday.

QUAKER CAGERS SEEK THIRD VICTORY TONIGHT

SHASTEEN FIVE SUFFERS FIRST LEAGUE DEFEAT

Carroll Comets Hand Sinclairs First Setback In Class A Loop

The Shasteen Sinclairs fell from a tie for the first place in the Class A basketball league last night, leaving the first place position as the sole possession of the Altohouse Motors, who have won four games and lost none.

The Carroll Comets blasted the Sinclairs from a tie for the top ranking post, handing the Shasteen quintet a 28 to 21 defeat in one of four games at the Memorial building gymnasium.

With "Gabby" Guappone, Roland Schaffer and Jerome Kaiser leading the attack, the Comets piled up a seven-point lead on the Sinclairs in the first half and maintained this advantage throughout the second half. The score at the intermission was 13 to 6.

The defeat was the first the Sinclairs have suffered in four games, while the victory was the fourth for the Comets in five games.

Paced by Mike Linder, who rang up five field goals for 10 points, the Silver Streaks trounced Whit's Garage, 26 to 15, in the other Class A game. It was the third win for four games for the Streaks.

The Garagemen trailed throughout the contest and were on the short end of an 11 to 6 score at halftime. The defeat was the fourth in a row for Whit's quintet.

The Baptists, who started out strong in the Class B league, were handed their second straight defeat in one of two Class B games, losing to the Methodists "A", 47 to 24.

C. Weigand and Theriault scored 20 and 14 points respectively to share honors in the Methodists' easy triumph. The M. E. team led 15 to 7 at halftime.

The Carroll Cadets chalked up their fourth win in five games in the other Class B tilt, taking the measure of the K. of C. 28 to 15. The victory boosted the Cadets into a tie for second place with Demings.

BOWLING RESULTS

The Commercial league resumed activity at the Grate Recreation alleys last night after a one-week layoff during the Christmas holidays. The first place Merit Shoes set the pace by taking two out of three games with the Grate Recreation five.

Paul Frank led Merit to the victory, turning in a 57 series, including a 258 single game.

The Salem Label Co. moved back into second place by taking two out of three games with the Grate Service team. Smith's Creamery, which formerly held second position, dropped to third by losing three games to the Washingtonville Odd Fellows.

Other matches saw Berg Bretzels take three games from the Salem News, the Salem Polo Club win two out of three from the Ohio Bell, and the Crescent Machine take two out of three from the Leetonia Super Service.

Rival teams from the Metzger and Lape hotels clashed in a special match at the Grate alleys last night with the Metzger team coming out on top, 2345 to 2196. The Metzger team bowls in the National league, while the Lape five rolls in the Quaker City loop.

BUILDING NEW TENNIS STARS IS USLTA JOB

Junior Development Is Important For Net Association

BY HOLCOMBE WARD
President, United States Lawn Tennis Association

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Junior development work looms large in the picture of U. S. L. T. A. activities during the year just completed. It is to hold an equally important place in the months ahead. In making this statement I have not overlooked our successful defense of the Davis cup, emblematic of world's tennis supremacy.

The two fields are linked by cause and effect. You cannot have a winning Davis cup team without the proper foundation, and that means development among juniors of playing ability, tournament temperament and amateur sportsmanship, all of which are requisites for a successful Davis cup player.

It is along these lines that our association is building. The development of our program is neither hasty nor sensational. Each year sees a steady and satisfactory progress, which can be illustrated by a few statistics:

During the past three years, tennis centers which provide qualifying tournaments for national junior, boys and girls championships have increased from 95 to 199. Tournaments played at these centers have more than doubled, and the number of registered juniors eligible for such events has grown from approximately 2,200 to 6,400.

A slight step beyond the tennis centers are the Junior Davis cup, Junior Wimbledon cup and Junior development squads. More than $11,000 was disbursed for these projects in 1938, and equally liberal allotments will be assigned for 1939.

While junior progress is stressed in this review, the forward tempo prevails throughout the U. S. L. T. A. during the past 12 months 688 tournaments, 426 senior and 262 junior events, were sanctioned by the national association. Club membership rose from slightly more than 700 clubs to nearly 830.

This progress has been made possible by our association's policy of diverting all revenue above moderate operating expense to constructive work both by the national body and the thirteen sectional associations. Between 1928 and 1937 the U. S. L. T. A. distributed $53,304 to finance this development among sectional associations.

Although the changed status of Donald Budge probably has brought about a greater balance in the Davis cup prospects of several of the world's leading tennis-playing nations, the United States still has a most promising field of material from which to select a team for 1939 defense of the trophy. It has that material in such outstanding young and veteran players as Robert Riggs, Gene Mako, Sidney Wood, Elwood Cooke, Joseph and O'Gilbert Hunt, Frank Guernsey, Don McNeill, Francis Kovacs, Frank Stueland, Frank Park, Bryan Grant, Gardner Mulloy, Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn, to mention only a few.

SCHOOLS, RELIEF; WHICH IS FIRST?

Each Strives to Gain Consideration From New Legislature

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Jan. 6.—The convening of the 93rd general assembly marks the start of a race between the school interests and the poor relief lobbyists for millions of dollars in state funds.

Each will strive to receive first consideration in the legislature. The school representatives fear that if the relief crowd gets its hand into the treasury first, the schools won't get all they need, and vice versa.

The Republicans, who will dominate the new legislature, are pledged to finance the school foundation program adequately.

This involves payment of accumulated deficits, estimated anywhere from $13,000,000 to $17,000,000, and raising perhaps $5,000,000 a year additional to put the program on a pay-as-you-go basis.

The schools' predicament has been caused largely by declining sales tax revenue, of which they receive 60 per cent after deductions for poor relief and administration.

Cost Is $48,000,000
The cost of providing a uniform program of education has been about $48,000,000 a year.

A business boom with an attendant sharp increase in collections from the sales tax, as well as the liquid fuel and cigarette taxes, also allocated to the schools, might provide the $5,000,000 needed to put the foundation program on an even keel.

The biggest problem probably will be in caring for the deficit. Gov.-elect John W. Bricker has indicated he hopes to see the deficit paid off on the installment plan. One method would be creation of a state authority, similar to the bridge commission and building authority, which would issue bonds to pay the deficit.

Where the money will be found to pay off the bonds is a question on which no one familiar with the situation has committed himself.

Because of a lack of cash, the state has had to pay the quarterly $12,000,000 distribution to the schools in notes, on which local boards of education must pay interest while the state is redeeming the obligations. This interest has cost the boards about $750,000 a year.

Drills Gas Well

Ed. Reichenbach, who had a test well for natural gas drilled on the north end of the lot on which his residence property is located, was fortunate in getting a strong pressure gas well. They will use this gas for heating and cooking purposes in their home, a two family house—also for heating the Reichenbach garage and sales room.

Discover Chemical Which Will Combat Mustard Gas Burns

GENEVA, N. Y., Jan. 6.—A new chemical compound for virtually complete protection for soldiers and civilians against one of war's worst horrors, the burns of mustard gas, was announced today by officials of Hobart College.

"Mustard," 20 years after the World war, still rates as the most effective poison gas. The new chemical, sprayed on clothing, is announced as protection for months against the burns.

The discoverer is Dr. Ralph H. Bullard, professor of chemistry, member of the American Chemical society and several honorary science organizations, formerly an industrial chemist. The formula of the chemical is not made public.

Because of its ability to cause contact burns, mustard has been used to saturate the ground to render areas of military importance temporarily untenable. Although little has been said about this, the newer mustard gases are expected to make this burning threat last for days, and for weeks if there is no rain.

"Mustard gas coming in contact with treated clothing immediately is neutralized and becomes harmless as the air itself. The preparation is harmless to human beings and treated clothing can be worn without any discomfort whatever," the announcement said.

KEWANEE, Ill.—The correspondence school lessons on nursing hadn't reached twins yet, but youthful Mrs. Robert Ernest wasn't daunted.

At the hour for Mrs. Wilbur Hollars' accouchement at her near-by farm home the physician was delayed. Mrs. Ernest, 19, a student by correspondence of a Chicago nursing school, did the best she could.

It was enough. The twins, Vivian Ann and Harold Dean, arrived safely. They were children No. 4 and 5 for Mrs. Hollars, 35.

NEW YEAR and New Savings at A&P

If you have been shopping at A&P you know that you have been spending less for America's finest foods and pocketing worthwhile savings. A&P's prices are low, day in and day out, on every item of the big and varied stocks of our Super Markets.

WHY A&P PRICES ARE LOW
We go direct to the producers, farmers, millers, manufacturers—and buy for cash. We bring these fine foods to you by the most direct route, eliminating wasteful transportation costs and in-between profits. We sell them for cash and that cuts out credit losses. We have no delivery service to run up our overhead. We take only one small profit. No wonder thousands of women say they save between $1 and $2 every week by shopping in A&P Markets. Resolve to take advantage of these savings yourself.
